Jesus said to [Zacchaeus], “Today salvation has come to this house
because this man too
is a descendant of Abraham. For the Son of Man has come to seek and to save
what was lost.”

This event is sponsored by West Hennepin Branch of Thrivent. A shopper could buy meaningful gifts to honor special people in their lives. Imagine giving the gift of medicines and vaccines for a mobile clinic in Haiti in honor of your brother, a physician, or improving lives in disaster-affected areas in Malawi by the gift of baby fish for a pond makeover in honor of a newlywed couple. Your friends or relatives will receive an attractive card telling them about the gifts given in their honor, and they will know that they have helped make a difference in the world. Come and celebrate the true spirit of Christmas!

Also available at the Market are third-world craft items from SERRV, such as basketware, hand-crafted jewelry, toys, etc.

Sacrificial Giving Simplest Truth

“A few weeks ago I sat down at the breakfast table to write our pledge check to the church. Johnnie, our curious, five-year-old son picked up our offering envelope and asked, ‘Mom, who are you sending this envelope to?’ Seeking to be a model parent and hoping to impart some wisdom to my little boy, I welcomed this opportunity to teach him about giving. I replied, too simply as it turns out, ‘This is a special envelope. We are sending money to God.’ Johnnie brought joy to my heart as he, looking thoughtful for a moment, said, ‘Mom, everything belongs to God. This is just the part you’re giving back.’”

from Stewardship

St. Paul Seminary School of Divinity Collection this weekend (year 3 of 3 last year for this collection). As a parish and as an Archdiocese, we are committed to praying for, encouraging, and supporting vocations to the priesthood and religious life. We are blessed with a vibrant, growing seminary community. Each year more men are responding to God's call to pursue a vocation to the priesthood, and as the number of seminarians at The St. Paul Seminary continues to rise, so does strength of its program of formation. Our church needs more good and holy priests, and the seminary is prepared to meet that need. Please be as generous as you can and keep our seminarians in your prayers.
